

Choose It or They

The words "it" and "they" are pronouns that substitute for nouns. In this exercise, choose "it" or "they" to refer to a noun.

Example: The children are playing. They are having fun.

1. The TV is on. Please turn _____ off.
2. The pizza is ready. Be careful, _____ might be hot.
3. The cars are expensive because _____ came from Germany.
4. If you see the movie, don't tell me how _____ ends.
5. We wanted to buy some apples, but _____ looked rotten.
6. I followed his directions; however, _____ turned out to be incorrect.
7. Let's get that furniture if _____ goes on sale.
8. We returned the fruit because _____ didn't taste right.
9. She didn't drive to Kansas. _____ would have taken too long.
10. The men are looking for work. Do you think _____ will find jobs here?
11. Did you see all the deer? _____ ran away as soon as we drove by.
12. Our house used to have mice. _____ lived in the basement until we got a cat.
13. The trains finally arrived at the station. _____ often fall behind schedule in the evening.
14. Before you eat the cereal, let _____ cool down a little.
15. After you remove the packaging around the medicine tablets, put _____ in the garbage.